

INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY STAFF

Ken -

I've reviewed and find no conflict with what is being drafted as proposed Intelligence Community implementation.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Executive Director

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Implementation of NSDD-19 on Protection of Classified National Security Council and Intelligence Information

REFERENCE: White House Memorandum, dated 2 February 1982, same Subject

1. Reference tasks Agency heads to forward to the National Security Council (NSC), by 15 March 1982, implementing instructions on procedures for the protection of classified NSC and intelligence information.

2. The Office of Security has prepared a response to reference for your signature (Tab A). It advises that a regulation has been drafted covering the prescribed procedures and safeguards for NSC information. It also advises that extant CIA regulations are in full accord with the letter and intent of reference. A Headquarters Notice for your signature has also been drafted (Tab B). It advises CIA employees of the special procedures for NSC information and urges strict compliance with regulations covering disclosure of classified information.

3. Reference also directs the DCI to "develop similar procedures" for protection of classified intelligence information. This has been interpreted as Intelligence Community implementation and is being pursued by the DCI Security Committee.

4. If you concur in the attached drafts, you are requested to sign the attached memorandum (Tab A) to Mr. Clark and the Headquarters Notice (Tab B).
